Memo

Letter No. 2253 I. dated 7th August 1883 from the Government of India, Foreign Department.

In their letter No. 123 I.J., dated 1st June 1881, paras 4 to 7, the Government of India requested the Resident to submit for their approval and eventual publication an Exhaustive Notification giving therein a list of all the Acts, regulations and rules in force in the Civil & Military Station of Bangalore, with such modifications as might appear necessary ~~in the case~~ to adapt them to ~~the~~ altered circumstances of the Station subsequent to the Reduction of Mysore.

A Notification containing a list of all the Acts in force with the necessary modifications was submitted to the Government of India with this Office letter No. $\frac{678}{147}$ dated 24th June 1882. It was also pointed out that a list of rules in force was under preparation and would be submitted at an early date, but it was requested that the Notfn regarding the Acts be published at once.

The Government of India have now published the Notification relating to Acts in the Gazette of India. They have however restricted the list to the Acts which were in force before the Rendition, and state that another general Notification ~~containing~~ ~~&c~~ specifying all the Acts now in force is under preparation.

The ~~intr~~ Acts introduced subsequent to the Rendition are those named in the margin and these are contained in one Notification, No 529 J. dated 1st March 1883.

Thus, the Notification of 1st March and that of the 7th August 1883, contain all the

(1). Kazis' Act (12 of 1880)
(2) Excise Act (22 of 1881).
(3) Transfer of Property Act (4 of 1882)
(4). Indian Companies Act (6 of 1882)
(5) Indian Penal Code Amendment Act (8 of 1882).
(6) Code of Criminal Procedure (10 of 1882)
(7) Code of Civil Procedure (14 of 1882)
(8) Cruelty to Animals (Bengal Act 3 of 1869)

Copy of Notifn No 529 J. of 1st March 1883 is put up.

Memo

With regard to the Land Revenue Rules - the only way wh I can see to get over the difficulty connected with the work wh we have to do, & to show the Revenue Laws actually in force in the Native States in the collection of the Land Revenue

As to the Excise Revenue question Major Keatley is the same case.

As the Stamp Rules with the draft Rules

Suggestion should be sent to the Chief Judge, with a request that he will send them, and make additions, if any that are necessary in order to show the rules having the force of Laws which are actually in force in the Native States. With the early replies

The absence of separate Revenue

establishment for the Station have led to some confusion in the interpretation of the Revenue Rules and the modifications to be made in them. It is respectfully submitted that, if approved, these rules may be sent to some Native officer of Revenue experience of the province for such suggestions as he may have to offer.

The only portion which seems to be required for the Station is that which relates to reserved trees - This portion is retained - All is stated in the last that Conservator of Forests shall, until further order, mean the Forest Officer of the Bassein Division -

Rules regulating the appointment of Ministerial officers in the Civil Court -

The rules, for the sake of convenience have been re-cast -

(Rules under the Madras Civil Court Act - — — — —

These rules, since last framed for Bombay have been extended to it, but as they are a dead letter in Bombay, they have been excluded -

Rule 1 which in the states where the rules came into force in ~~Bengal~~ British India, omitted -

Licenses, to be valid for all Districts of the province, have, as the rules are, to be countersigned by the Commissioner of the Division. Commissioner has been substituted by the word President.

Rules made under the Pleaders' Act, 1879.

Rule 2, as it stood, provided for the enrolment, as advocates and pleaders, of persons who had been admitted by competent authority as pleaders of any Court in Bengal before the

This file relates to the framing of a correct lists of Acts and Rules in force in the C & M. Station of Bangalore, ~~embodying~~ the necessary modifications to be made in each Act & Rule.

2. A list of Acts was prepared in this office and submitted and it was sanctioned by the Govt of India. ~~in Ft. for. dated 17 March 83.~~

Foreign Dept: Notifn No 2252 I. dated 7th Augt 1883 (forwarded copy not).

3. Lists of rules were also prepared in this office; the list relating to Judl matters was sent to the Chief Judge of Mysore for opinion, ~~and~~ that relating to Excise was sent to the Dt Magistrate, and that relating to Revenue to the Dewan. All the offices have replied except the Dewan to whom several reminders were sent. The last reminder was sent on 8th March 1884 but no reply has yet been received.

4. The Cases made back
~~not~~ therefore ~~have~~ been submitted to the Government of India as yet.

5. Some of the rules will now probably require further modifications
owing to the change
recently made in the Judicial administration of the Station, the Resident having been vested with the powers of a High Court in the place of the Chief Judge
